

Taking the Spanish OTR® or COTA® Certification Examination

Candidates may choose to take the OTR or COTA examination written in American Spanish. Candidates wishing to take the examination written in American Spanish MUST:

- Select the option to take the examination in American Spanish on the certification examination application (section 7 of the application).

Candidates who submit an exam application and later request the American Spanish version will be required to pay an additional fee.