About This Handbook

This handbook has been developed to provide you with the information you will need to renew your NBCOT certification. NBCOT recognizes the responsibility certificants assume when renewing their certification and our aim is to provide a smooth and positive renewal experience. Certification Renewal

Certification renewal recognizes that you, the OTR® or COTA®, have met a national standard for professionalism and promotes continued professional development. We believe that continually supporting your practice has long-term benefits for all stakeholders.

By completing all certification renewal requirements by your scheduled renewal date, you will be granted Active in Good Standing certification status for another three years. The certification renewal season occurs between January and March annually. NBCOT Candidate/Certificant Code of Conduct

The certification renewal requirement and tools were developed using the NBCOT Ongoing Professional Practice Content Outline with input from key stakeholder groups including practitioners, employers, and regulators.
Your Credential Status

Active in Good Standing: Individuals currently certified with NBCOT and who have met the certification renewal requirements are Active in Good Standing. These individuals can identify themselves to the public as an OTR or COTA. These individuals can use the OTR or COTA credential after their name.

Retired in Good Standing: OTR and COTA certificants who are Active in Good Standing with NBCOT can request their certification status be changed to Retired in Good Standing. Certificants MUST notify NBCOT of this status change and submit a Retired in Good Standing request. Once the request has been processed, retired certificants can identify themselves to the public as an OTR, Retired or COTA, Retired. These individuals can use “OTR, Retired” or “COTA, Retired” after their name.

Expired: Individuals who do not satisfy the NBCOT certification renewal requirement by their scheduled renewal date are Expired and CANNOT 1) identify themselves to the public as an OTR or COTA or 2) use the OTR or COTA credential after their name.

When to Renew Your Certification

Certificants who complete all certification renewal requirements by their scheduled renewal date will be granted Active in Good Standing certification status for a three-year period. The certification renewal season occurs between January and March annually, regardless of the month indicated on the certificant’s initial certification document. Certificants who do not submit their certification renewal application by the scheduled renewal date will have their certification status changed to Expired. An individual who has an Expired certification cannot use the OTR or COTA certification marks.

Certification Renewal Requirements & Tools

Accruing the Certification Renewal Requirements

Certificants must accrue at least 36 units during their renewal cycle. Units can be obtained through a combination of competency assessment units (CAUs) and/or professional development units (PDUs). Accepted activity types are listed on the Certification Renewal Activities Chart.

Certificants who renewed their certification in 2020 are permitted to carry over up to 10 units earned during their 2017–2020 renewal cycle, provided that the 10 units were in excess of the 36 units required for their 2020 certification renewal.

If audited, certificants must provide documentation from the previous cycle (2017–2020) to show the excess units being carried forward.
How to Convert Units to PDU

Continuing Education Units (CEU) and contact hours can be converted into PDU as described in the chart below. Certificants can convert CEU to PDU using the PDU Calculator available through their MyNBCOT account under Renewal Log.

- 1 contact hour (not to include meals or breaks) = 1 PDU
- 1 clock hour (not to include meals or breaks) = 1 PDU
- 0.1 Continuing Education Unit (CEU) = 1 PDU
- One contact hour earned through successfully completed education (workshops, seminars, online courses, or conferences) with an assessment component at the end of the program (scored test project, paper) provided by AOTA; AOTA-approved providers; IACET-authorized providers; or regionally accredited college or universities = 1.25 PDU
- 1 Competency Assessment Unit (CAU) = 1 Contact Hour or 1 PDU

Please Note: NBCOT adheres to the CEU definition defined by the International Association for Continuing Education and Training (IACET) of 1 CEU = 10 Contact Hours.

NBCOT Navigator®

Navigator is a virtual platform housing a web-based assessment delivery engine and certificant dashboard. The platform is designed to interface with a series of tools to support certificants’ continued competency. Through the platform, certificants can identify and access resources related to specific practice areas, receive feedback and track performance on an array of assessment tools, and organize documentation of completed continuing competency.

NBCOT enables occupational therapy professionals to earn competency assessment units (CAUs) toward their certification renewal requirements. These interactive tools are also designed to help employers facilitate the ongoing continuing competency and certification process of their occupational therapists and therapy assistants.

Certificants can access Navigator through their MyNBCOT account on www.nbcot.org. Occupational therapists and therapy assistants can use the tool suite to prepare for certification renewal, accrue CAU, and stay current in their practice areas year-round.

Navigator highlights 15 different primary practice areas:

NBCOT Practice Standards/Code of Conduct

NBCOT has a responsibility to promote and maintain standards of professional conduct in the practice of occupational therapy. In order to protect the public, those applying for NBCOT certification must abide by the code of conduct.

Certificants or certification applicants who do not meet the code of conduct standards are subject to the Procedures for the Enforcement of the NBCOT Code of Conduct. These procedures enable NBCOT to protect the rights of candidates and certificants while upholding NBCOT’s responsibilities as a certifying agency to the public.

Preamble

The National Board for Certification in Occupational Therapy, Inc. (“NBCOT,” formerly known as “AOTCB”) is a professional organization that supports and promotes occupational therapy practitioner certification. This Candidate/Certificant Code of Conduct enables NBCOT to define and clarify the standards of personal and professional conduct required for eligibility for both initial and continued certification, i.e., OCCUPATIONAL THERAPIST REGISTERED OTR® (OTR) henceforth OTR, and CERTIFIED OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY ASSISTANT COTA® (COTA) henceforth COTA. Where the term “certificant is used, the term “applicant or candidate” is included in its scope.

It is vital that NBCOT certificants conduct their work in a professional manner to earn and maintain the confidence and respect of recipients of occupational therapy, colleagues, employers, students, and the public.

As certified professionals in the field of occupational therapy, NBCOT certificants will at all times act with integrity; adhere to high standards for personal and professional conduct; accept responsibility for their actions, both personally and professionally; continually seek to enhance their professional capabilities; practice in a competent, fair, honest, equitable, and just manner; abide by all federal, state, and local laws and regulations; and encourage others to act in a professional manner consistent with the practice standards and responsibilities set forth below.

Principle 5

Principle 7
Certificants shall not engage in the practice of occupational therapy while one’s ability to practice is impaired due to chemical (i.e., legal and/or illegal) drug or alcohol abuse.

Principle 8
Certificants shall not electronically post personal health information or anything, including photos, that may reveal a patient’s/client’s identity or personal or therapeutic relationship, without the patient’s/client’s written consent. (All statements, regardless of intent, about a patient/client can potentially contain sufficient information for a member of a community to recognize the patient/client thus, violating the state and/or federal law (i.e. Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA)).

Principle 9
Certificants shall not misuse NBCOT’s intellectual property, certification marks, logos, or other copyrighted materials. This includes all NBCOT exam preparation tools, website or exam content. Disclosure of practice test questions or examination material content, including examination questions, is strictly prohibited.
The Renewal Application

The application consists of five sections:

1. Background information: The certificant must enter all information requested related to their background. They may also request a name change, if needed.

2. Character review: The certificant must answer all of the questions listed under the character review section. If a certificant answers “Yes” to any of the questions, they will be contacted for additional information as a review must be completed before the renewal application may be approved.

2. Read and agree to abide by the NBCOT Certificant Attestation.
3. Complete the online renewal application or mail in a paper renewal application.

The Reinstatement Process

Certificants who do not renew their certification within their renewal year must apply for reinstatement and be approved prior to using the OTR or COTA credential.

RENEWING WITHIN ONE MISSED RENEWAL PERIOD

Sally renewed her certification on time in 2016. At the end of 2018, Sally elects to take a career break and decides not to renew her certification when it is due in 2019. In January 2022, she wishes to renew her certification. To renew, she would have to do the following:

• Attain at least 30 units within the last three years from any category listed under the Professional Development Activities section of the NBCOT Certification Renewal Activities Chart.
• Complete the General Practice Self-Assessment and print off the score report page.
• Submit the completed Reinstatement of Certification Application and chart, the Self-Assessment score page, copies of the verification documentation that support the activities listed on the chart, and the fee of $125.
• After the application, documentation, and payment have been received, NBCOT will grant access to the NBCOT Navigator®.
• Complete six competency assessment units (CAUs) through Navigator.
• Once the six CAUs have been completed, the application will be reviewed.

RENEWING AFTER TWO MISSED RENEWAL PERIODS

Brian does not renew his certification when it is due in 2019. In July 2023, Brian wishes to renew his certification. To renew, he would have to do the following:

• Attain at least 12 units from ID #s 20, 21, and/or 23 on the NBCOT Certification Renewal Activities Chart.
• Attain at least 12 units from any of the categories listed under the Professional Development Activities section on the NBCOT Certification Renewal Activities Chart.
• Submit a completed Reinstatement of Certification Renewal Application and reinstatement chart, copies of verification documentation that support the activities listed on the chart, and the fee of $175.
• After the application, documentation, and payment have been received, NBCOT will grant access to the NBCOT Navigator®.
• Complete 12 competency assessment units (CAUs) through Navigator.
• Once the 12 CAUs have been completed, the application will be reviewed.

The Reinstatement of Certification Renewal application is available to Expired certificants in their MyNBCOT account.

Beginning January 1, 2027, any individual who has allowed their certification to lapse for three or more cycles must complete the following steps to reinstate their certification with NBCOT:

• Submit a completed Reinstatement of Certification Examination application and the fee of $515.
• Undergo a background check.
• Pass the current entry-level NBCOT certification examination.
A reinstatement application is valid for four months from date of initial submission. NBCOT will notify the certificant within 20 business days of receipt of the completed application on the status. If the application is not approved, the certificant will be advised of the deficiencies and the measures available for rectifying them. Applicants who do not address the deficiencies within that time will need to submit a new reinstatement application and fee in order to complete the renewal process. Note: The original application fee is non-refundable.

After You Renew Your Certification

Certificants should allow up to three to four weeks from the date their application is processed to receive their certificate and wallet card in the mail. Certificants may check their renewal status online by logging into their MyNBCOT account. Certificants who do not receive their certificate within six weeks should email NBCOT at recert@nbcot.org. The email should include the certificant’s full name, certification number, the type of application submitted (online or paper), and the payment method used to renew. Certificants must contact NBCOT within two months of renewing their certification in order to be reissued a certificate at no cost. Certificants who do not contact NBCOT within this time will need to request a duplicate certificate by logging into their MyNBCOT account.

Certification Renewal Audit

All OTR and COTA certificants who renew their NBCOT certification are subject to a random audit of their compliance with the professional development requirements. The number of certificants audited will be sufficient to provide a 95% confidence level regarding the renewal rate of OTR and COTA certificants. To complete the audit successfully, the certificant must submit evidence of attaining 36 units. Certificants should maintain all of their documentation for one full year after renewing their certification in the event that they are audited.
Any certificant who is selected and does not successfully complete the audit will have their certification status changed to Expired. Expired certification means an individual cannot use the OTR or COTA certification marks. In order to regain certification, a reinstatement application would need to be submitted. (See page 10.)

Active-Duty Military Personnel

Active-duty military personnel who experience difficulties fulfilling the NBCOT certification renewal requirements while serving on long-term deployments overseas are urged to contact the NBCOT Certification Renewal Department for assistance at recert@nbcot.org.

Special Circumstance

Certification renewal candidates who have experienced exceptional personal or medical circumstances impacting the ability to accrue units during the renewal cycle should contact NBCOT before March 31 of their renewal year. NBCOT will review requests for renewal with special circumstance on a case-by-case basis. Please send an email to recert@nbcot.org with a brief explanation outlining the reason(s) for your request.

Appeals Procedures

If, upon submitting a renewal application, NBCOT determines that an applicant has not met the certification renewal requirements—including the submission of incomplete or non-recognized PDU—the applicant has the right to appeal. Within 30 days from receipt of the non-renewal notification, the applicant may submit a letter of appeal. The letter must outline the grounds for the appeal, including the reason(s) the application should be recognized and accepted by NBCOT.

Appeals should be sent via traceable mail (i.e., certified, UPS, FedEx) to:

- NBCOT, Inc.
  - Attn: Certification Renewal Appeal
  - One Bank Street, Suite 300
  - Gaithersburg, MD 20878

Certification Information and Updates

In order to stay informed about the latest certification renewal information, it is the certificant’s responsibility to keep their mailing and email addresses updated with NBCOT. Any changes to contact information should be updated through the certificant’s MyNBCOT account.

Still Have Questions?

Additional information and resources on the certification renewal process can be found at nbcot.org/certification/renew. Any additional questions can be directed to recert@nbcot.org.
